

SPRAGUE AND WYLER RACING TAKE MEMPHIS FOR THEIR FIRST TOYOTA WIN.

FOR THOSE WHO THOUGHT SPRAGUE
WOULD EVER GET TIRED OF WINNING,
THEY DON'T KNOW JACK.

The saying "winner takes all" has never been more true than at Memphis. Starting on the pole, Jack Sprague of Wyler Racing led an impressive 133 of 202 laps in taking the green-white-checkered flag. Even with this display of dominance, it still came down to an all-out race to the finish on the last two laps. Sprague and his No. 60 Tundra, sponsored by Con-Way Freight, held off the competition for his first victory of the year. Congratulations to you and your crew, Jack.
