

THREE-WIDE. TWO TUNDRAS. ONE DRAMATIC FINISH.

TOYOTA WINS AT DAYTONA INTERNATIONAL SPEEDWAY.

A bit of Toyota teamwork helped polesitter Jack Sprague and his Con-way Freight Tundra capture the checkered at Daytona International Speedway. Trailing the leader heading to the finish line, Sprague used a helpful push from fellow Toyota driver Johnny Benson to take the victory by half a truck-length in a three-wide photo finish. The only three-time series champion, Sprague's win was his first at the superspeedway, while also marking the first time a Toyota has won at the historic track. Benson, in his Toyota Certified Used Vehicles Tundra, finished second. Congratulations to Jack, Johnny and their crews on an unforgettable start to the 2007 season.
